SAN FRANCISCO, CA (February 21, 2023) — The 39th season of the Schwabacher Recital Series, presented by San Francisco Opera Center and the Merola Opera Program, opens on March 1 with soprano Meigui Zhang and pianist John Churchwell and continues on March 22 with a program curated by Nicholas Phan featuring five San Francisco Opera Adler Fellows and Merola alumni. Both concerts take place at San Francisco's Dianne and Tad Taube Atrium Theater in the Veterans Building.

The Schwabacher Recital Series presents emerging and esteemed artists from around the globe, performing an eclectic selection of song literature and new works in the intimacy of a recital setting. Recitals later this season feature countertenor Aryeh Nussbaum Cohen and pianist Carrie-Ann Matheson on April 12 and mezzo-soprano Erin Wagner and pianist Shawn Chang on May 18.

MARCH 1, TAUBE ATRIUM THEATER
MEIGUI ZHANG AND JOHN CHURCHWELL

Meigui Zhang, John Churchwell

On March 1, Merola alumni soprano Meigui Zhang (2018) and pianist John Churchwell (1996) will perform a program of art songs and arias in four languages: German, French, Italian and Chinese. Zhang, a native of Chengdu, China, said about one of the Chinese repertoire highlights of this concert: "I deliberately chose a very representative Chinese art song adapted from the ancient poems of the Song dynasty and my favorite song: Ding Shande's 'Sunflower from my lover.' I look forward to sharing these most beautiful melodies with the audience in San Francisco."

Meigui Zhang made her San Francisco Opera debut in Summer 2022 as Dai Yu in Bright Sheng and David Henry Hwang's Dream of the Red Chamber and returned last November in another role debut in Gluck's Orpheus and Eurydice, garnering praise from Opera News as a "touchingly expressive, plush-voiced Eurydice." Zhang is also the subject of an episode of the Company's award-winning video portrait series, In Song, in which she performed Eva Dell'Acqua's "Villanelle," a French song that is also part of this recital's program.

San Francisco Opera's Head of Music Staff John Churchwell was recently appointed co-director, with mezzo-soprano Sasha Cooke, of the Lehrer Vocal Institute at Santa Barbara's Music Academy of the West. He has assisted on more than 140 productions and collaborated with the world's leading conductors, including Eun Sun Kim, Nicola Luisotti, Donald Runnicles, James Conlon, Marco Armiliato and Fabio Luisi and was an assistant conductor at the Metropolitan Opera. He has collaborated in recital with many acclaimed artists, notably Renée Fleming, Joyce DiDonato, Susan Graham, Lawrence Brownlee, Lisette Oropesa, Isabel Leonard and Michael Fabiano.

MARCH 22, TAUBE ATRIUM THEATER
MIKAYLA SAGER, GABRIELLE BETEAG,
VICTOR CARDAMONE, EDWARD GRAVES AND MARIKA YASUDA
Curated by Nicholas Phan

Mikayla Sager, Gabrielle Beteag, Victor Cardamone, Edward Graves, Marika Yasuda

The second Schwabacher recital of the season, on March 22, features five second-year San Francisco Opera Adler Fellows and Merola alumni: soprano Mikayla Sager, mezzo-soprano

Gabrielle Beteag, tenors Victor Cardamone and Edward Graves and pianist Marika Yasuda. The artists will perform rarely heard musical selections in a program curated by tenor Nicholas Phan that spans from Brahms, Schumann and Monteverdi to Pauline Viardot, Nora Holt and Ruth Crawford Seeger.

Phan said, "The program is centered around the theme of night. The recital's wide-ranging repertoire explores sunset to sunrise and all of the fun, drama and beauty that happens in between. This is always a special opportunity to collaborate with the Adler Fellows in curating and preparing their Schwabacher recitals. Recital singing requires sophisticated vocal and interpretive techniques to capture the subtleties of the music and poetic texts, and working on these skills with these talented, young artists gives me much reassurance that this tradition has a bright future."

Canadian soprano Mikayla Sager first appeared with the Company in the Eun Sun Kim Conducts Verdi concert last summer and returned to the War Memorial Opera House stage in October as Sister Felicity in Poulenc's Dialogues of the Carmelites. Beginning March 10, Sager will share the role of Mimi in San Francisco Opera's touring production of Bohème Out of the Box.

Mezzo-soprano Gabrielle Beteag first bowed with San Francisco Opera in Bright Sheng and David Henry Hwang's Dream of the Red Chamber in 2022. During the Company's Centennial Season, Beteag created the role of Iras in the world premiere of John Adams' Antony and Cleopatra and made her role debut as Sister Gertrude in Dialogues of the Carmelites. Prior to the Adler Fellowship Program, Beteag was a Grand Finals Winner of the Metropolitan Opera National Council Auditions in 2020.

As a first-year Adler Fellow in 2022, tenor Victor Cardamone made his San Francisco Opera debut in Dream of the Red Chamber. This March and April, he shares the role of Rodolfo with Edward Graves in San Francisco Opera's Bohème Out of the Box. He previously participated in the first workshops/studio recordings for Matthew Aucoin's Eurydice, Scott Davenport Richards' Blind Injustice and Kevin Puts' The Hours.

This spring, tenor Edward Graves shares the role of Rodolfo with Victor Cardamone in San Francisco Opera's Bohème Out of the Box which will visit venues in Alameda, South San Francisco, Los Gatos and Dublin. Graves made role debuts with the Company in Dream of the Red Chamber and most recently as Gastone in a new production of La Traviata. He created the role of Policeman 2 in Jeanine Tesori and Tazewell Thompson's Blue at The Glimmerglass Festival. Later this year he makes his Spoleto Festival USA debut as Anatol in Barber's Vanessa.

Pianist and vocal coach Marika Yasuda is a recent graduate of the Jacobs School of Music at Indiana University where she is a doctoral candidate in Collaborative Piano. She has served on productions of The Barber of Seville, La Bohème, Gianni Schicchi, West Side Story and Mason Bates and Mark Campbell's The (R)evolution of Steve Jobs. In 2022, she was on music staff for San Francisco Opera's productions of Dream of the Red Chamber and La Traviata and later this spring will perform at Bohème Out of the Box.

Nicholas Phan is a Grammy-nominated American tenor who is recognized as an opera and concert soloist and an avid recitalist. Co-founder of Collaborative Arts Institute of Chicago, an organization devoted to promoting underserved repertoire, Phan is also a sought-after curator and programmer. He has created programs for Merola Opera Program, San Francisco Performances, WFMT, WQXR, Philadelphia Chamber Music Society and Bravo! Vail Music Festival. His programs often examine themes of identity, highlight unfairly underrepresented voices from history and strive to underline the relevance of music from all periods to the currents of the present day.

ABOUT SAN FRANCISCO OPERA CENTER AND MEROLA OPERA PROGRAM

San Francisco Opera Center was created in 1982 by then-General Director Terence A. McEwen to oversee the operation and administration of the education and training programs initiated by Kurt Herbert Adler in 1954. Providing a coordinated sequence of performance and study opportunities for young artists, San Francisco Opera Center represents a new era in which young artists of major operatic potential can develop through intensive training and performance, under the aegis of a major international opera company.

Under the guidance of San Francisco Opera Center Artistic Director Carrie-Ann Matheson and General Director Markus Beam, with support from San Francisco Opera General Director Matthew Shilvock, the Opera Center has trained and introduced many young stars from around the world to the international opera stage through its resident artist programs.

Initially founded as the San Francisco Opera/Affiliate Artists program in 1975, the Adler Fellowship Program is one of the nation's most prestigious performance-oriented residencies for advanced young singers and pianists. Each year, Adler Fellows are sponsored by individual donors and institutional funders to help cover the cost of their fellowship, and sponsors affiliated with the Adler Program have the opportunity to attend private studio classes with the Fellows and develop nurturing relationships with them.

Alumni from the Adler Fellowship Program include sopranos Leah Crocetto, Heidi Melton, Melody Moore, Patricia Racette, Nadine Sierra, Ruth Ann Swenson, Elza van den Heever and Deborah Voigt; mezzo-sopranos Zheng Cao, Kendall Gladen, Daniela Mack and Dolora Zajick; countertenors Aryeh Nussbaum Cohen and Gerald Thompson; tenors Brian Jagde, Sean Panikkar and Alek Shrader; baritones Eugene Brancoveanu, Alfredo Daza, Mark Delavan and Lucas Meachem; bass-baritones John Relyea, Philip Skinner and Daniel Sumegi; and basses Magnús Baldvinsson and Kenneth Kellogg.

Widely regarded as the foremost opera training program for aspiring singers, pianists and stage directors, the Merola Opera Program has served as a proving ground for hundreds of artists. Many Merola alumni are now among the most recognized names in the opera world.

Every summer the program offers young operatic artists the rare opportunity of studying, coaching and participating in master classes with established professionals for twelve weeks. Participants also perform in complete opera productions, concerts and recitals. Offered free of charge for all participants, the Merola Opera Program is unique in the industry in many ways. Merola was the first young artist program to provide financial support to developing artists for five years following participation.

The Merola Opera Program is a financially independent organization with a separate 501(c)3 which operates in close collaboration with the San Francisco Opera Center and San Francisco Opera.

Since 2015, Merola Opera Program has been the sole sponsor of three of the four annual Schwabacher Recitals.

For more information on the San Francisco Opera Center, Adler Fellowship and Merola Opera Program, visit sfopera.com and merola.org.

The Schwabacher Recital Series is endowed in perpetuity by the generosity of celebrated Bay Area singer, scholar and teacher James Schwabacher and sponsored by the Merola Opera Program.

Yamaha is the official piano of San Francisco Opera. Pianos are generously provided by Piedmont Piano Company.
